Career aspiration

Versatile and results-driven professional with over 15 years of experience across operations management, administration, sales support, government liaison, and team leadership roles in multiple industries. Known for strong analytical thinking, fast learning ability, and a hands-on approach to solving problems and improving processes. Experienced in managing end-to-end operations, coordinating with government agencies, leading teams, and delivering accurate reporting under pressure.

In 2024–2025, expanded skillset into technology by independently developing Alertify, a mobile application using Flutter and Firebase, demonstrating initiative, adaptability, and the ability to master new technical domains quickly.

Seeking opportunities across operations, administration, management, customer service, or technology-related roles where I can contribute my broad skillset, leadership capability, and continuous improvement mindset.
